Rain, Rain -- It did not go away

We finally ran out of good luck with weather, but we still managed to stage the 6th annual Ames High School Alumni Golf Outing at Veenker Memorial Golf Course in Ames on July 5. Through this experience, it is evident how much some alumni appreciate and enjoy this event. Everyone had a choice to play or not, and nearly all chose to get wet, playing in seemingly endless rain to the finish line.

The poor weather was not reflected in the team performances as the low team had a score of 59, for a two stroke margin of victory in the championship flight. The top teams in each flight were as follows:

Championship flight: John Alexander '88, Rick Swank '71, Jeff Herrick '71 and Jim Ryan '69.

First flight: Craig Calhoun '76, Dave Pope '77, Dave Ross '77 and Steve Shuman '77.

Second flight: Jeff Nigh '87, Geoff Will '90, Chad Wilson '90 and Bob Metzger '86.

Traditionally, the golf outing has been held the weekend closest to the 4th of July. That weekend, in 1999, has already been reserved at Veenker for the Iowa Masters Golf Tournament. Therefore, for the 1999 AHSAA Golf Outing, we have reserved Veenker for Saturday, July 31.

Thanks to the following for generously providing a good supply of skill prizes and door prizes: AHSAA, Cub Foods, Fareway, Homewood Golf Course, Hy Vee, McDonalds, Movies 12, Oaks Golf Course, Sigler Printing, Sweitzer Mountain Bed & Breakfast, Swift Stop convenience stores, T-Galaxy, Target and Veenker Memorial Golf Course.

Special thanks to the following individuals for contribution of their time and effort to help organize and run the outing:

Food: Bill Ripp
Registration: Dave Pope '77, Lori Calhoun, Connie Vaclav '76
Prizes: Pat Hansen '78
Craig Calhoun, '76

Holiday Open House, Choir Reunion and Hockey Reunion -- All for AHS Alumni

The AHSAA Holiday Open House and the AHS Choir Reunion will again be held on the same day, Sunday, December 27. The AHSAA Holiday Open House will be from 2-4pm and the AHS Choir Reunion will be from 3-5pm. Both events will be held at Ames High School

Last year nearly 100 alumni attended. Again this year, the high school will be open for touring and refreshments will be served.

Ames High alumni hockey players will be returning to the ice for a game on Saturday, December 26 at 6:30pm at the Ames/ISU Ice Arena. The 7th annual game will match the even graduation years against the odd graduation years. If you are an Ames High hockey alum, plan to play -- if a fan, plan to come and have a good time in the stands.

AHS Alums Return for Frank Brandt's 8th OUR TOWN

In the spring of 1944, Frank Brandt came to AHS from Clear Lake to take over the home room of L. Wayne Smith -- we never did find out what the "L" stood for - Llewelyn maybe? -- and, having been a theatre major under Hazel B. Strayer at UNI-Cedar Falls, to direct plays at AHS. His first play, in the fall of 1944, was Thornton Wilder's OUR TOWN. The cast had many from the classes of '45, '46 and even '47, perhaps.

Frank Brandt left AHS after two busy and successful years and joined the faculty at Iowa State University, staging OUR TOWN six more times. When the AHS class of '45 was holding its 50th reunion in the fall of 1995, Frank Brandt happened to be in Ames and came to the opening party. He suggested that he'd like to do OUR TOWN again for an 8th, and presumably final, time.

Eventually Frank Brandt, now 83, assembled a cast that included five of us from the 1944 AHS production: Marnie (Wallace) Leverett '46 (Las Cruces, NM), Alice (Ferguson) Holmes '47 (Falkville, AL), Phyllis Summers '46 (Gold Canyon, AZ), Pauline (Gibbs) Williams '46 (Ames), and Frank Ferguson '45 (Lexington, MA.). With big stories in both the Des Moines Register and the Ames Daily Tribune, the audience included a large number of AHS alumni who, as Dick Arnold, '46, (DeKalb, IL), said, "would go anywhere to see Frank Brandt direct again." The alumni attending included Phyllis (Thompson) Harris '45, Lois Thomas '45, Ed Nass '46, Marie (Schanche) Hart '46, Rollie Knight '46, Lorna (Wilhelm) Livingston '44, John Ferguson '51, Betsy (Ferguson) Lockhart '60 and Mary Lou (Butler) Hines '47. And surely MANY others that our leaky memories have managed to miss.

For months we all rehearsed our lines at home, came together in Ames for the first time in mid-May, and with 2 1/2 weeks of night and day rehearsals, we put on three wonderful performances at ISU's Fisher Theatre on June 4-6 with very full houses. Frank

Ready for the 8th OUR TOWN are Alice (Ferguson) Holmes '47 (Mrs. Soames), Frank Ferguson '45 (Stage Manager) and Phyllis Summers '46 (Mrs. Webb).

Brandt says he believes this was the best cast, the best costuming and overall the best production of OUR TOWN of his career.

If you'd like to contact Frank Brandt, he now lives in Deming, NM, with his recently married second wife, Namie. (Laura Brandt passed away three years ago after a brief illness.) The Brandts can be reached at: Frank & Namie Brandt, Rt 3 Box 211 A D, Deming, NM, 88030-9741 (email: FBrandt@aol.com).

There is no doubt that at 60+ and 70+ we in the cast all understood Wilder and the play far better than we had 54 years ago! The years do seem to teach us something. And Wilder, who wrote OUR TOWN 60 years ago when he was about 40, and wise beyond his years, left us all a legacy of warmth, love, and wisdom, and Emily's third act realization that we all need to wake up, and "realize life as you live it -- every, every minute!"

Frank Ferguson, '45 & Marnie (Wallace) Leverett, '46

Class of '42 Travels to Europe

A group from the class of 1942 followed their 50th reunion in 1992 by going to Europe for two weeks of sight-seeing and fellowship. The most frequently mentioned observation was that "We've grown up!"

There were two subsequent trips in the next few years to Italy and France/Spain. But in May 1998 (tied to no special reunion or other reason) a similar group took off again for Central Europe from France to Hungary. The group posed for a picture at the Castle of St. Bernard, outside Annecy, France where Dave Lush (travel arranger magnifique) has spent most of his post-high school life.

Standing: Rollie Paulson '42, Bob Tague '42, John Wheeler, Don Heinrich, Polly (Pride) Heinrich '43, Mary Elizabeth (Lush) Hausrath '42, Dave Lush '42, Al Hausrath '42, Florence Miller, Mary (McCormick) Siberell '47, Ellen (Dunlap) Block '44, Bill Block, Stan Siberell '42, Jack Rademacher, Wally Forman '42.

Nineteen return for their 60th

Nineteen members of the Ames High School class of 1938 held a 60th class reunion at the Ramada Inn Oct. 7-8. The Thursday night dinner started with invocation by Maxine (Fall) Morris and a moment dedicated to the nearly 60 members now deceased. Milton Wilcox, master of ceremonies, gave members the chance to "speak their piece."

65th reunion for the Class of '33

Uryth Dillavou was master of ceremonies on June 5 at the Holiday Inn for the 65th reunion of the Ames High School Class of 1933.

Front Row: Betty (Bergman) Houghan, Helen (Alexander) Schafroth, Veva (Cooper) Alleman, Jean (Cole) Bates, Lucille (Passmore) Young, Jane (Bossert) Long

AHS Retiring teachers give last words

Tom Jorgensen

*1971

*Social Studies teacher and coach
*Jorg plans to travel, play piano and work more with organ transplant programs during his retirement.

Dick Lang

*1964

*Drafting teacher

*"I love seeing the student's expression when they succeed," Lang said. He has no big future plans, but is looking to pursue his dream and do some traveling. The thing he hopes he has left with the students is giving them a challenge in their work. "I hope I presented the students with a challenge in my teaching," Lang said.

Paul Olson

*1971

*Auto Mech & Engineering drafting teacher

*"The kids have always been fun to be around," said Olson. Through the years of teaching he has challenged the students to investigate, figure things out and use their cleverness to grow. He has no definite plans after retirement but says he wants to have a lot of fun.

Marv Scott

*1968

*Social Studies teacher

*"I hope the students learned some valuable skills and basic ideas in history and got a challenge doing it," said Scott. Most of his years at Ames High were spent teaching social studies but he also taught math and speech and had been advisor for the debate team. "The one thing that always kept me coming back was I wanted to see how the students progressed from year to year." In his retirement Scott is looking to do a variety of things with his time. He hopes to do a little writing, volunteer work and spend time with his grandchildren.

Charlie Windsor

*1969

*Physics teacher

* You know a teacher is dedicated to teaching when they have a license plate that reads "FIZZIKS". His future plans are undecided but include the option to continue to teach at another school.

The one thing that he would like to be remembered by is his philosophy on life. "Whether a road is impassable or not depends less on the condition of the road than on how badly the travelers want to be where it leads."

AHS Yesterday

(exerpts from AHS Spirits)

1973 (25 years ago)...Dedication of New Wing

Formal dedication of the new Fine Arts Wing on December 3 opened a three-week series of productions and open houses which displayed the improved facilities to the public.

Members of the art, band, drama, modern dance, orchestra and vocal music departments worked to prepare six different programs to present to the Ames community. Daily practices were held in every possible moment so that each program would be ready on time.

1958 (40 years ago)...Fire Squad

A unique aspect of Ames High life is the self discipline imposed by the Fire Squad. Besides managing fire drills, the squad acts as hall monitors. Ames High is one of the few schools where teachers are not responsible for discipline in the halls.

Chiefs Phil Bappe and Don Milliken and sponsor, Miss Ruth Miller, confer.

Fire Squad rules are as follows:

1. Walk up and down stairs.
2. Walk through the halls.
3. Take your proper turn in the cafeteria line.
4. Leave your books in the class room or lockers.
5. Eat in the cafeteria (only).
6. Open and close lockers properly.
7. Obey rules during fire drills.
8. Leave the building as soon as possible after 4 P.M.
9. Abstain from smoking on school premises.
10. Drive carefully around the building.
11. Have conduct becoming to Ames High Students.

1948 (50 years ago)...Varied Assemblies

Assemblies for the year are planned by the Assembly Committee of Student Council under the direction of Everett Rittland. The group aims to provide a semi-monthly program which will be of interest to all students. Programs are presented by high school groups such as music or home talent assemblies, as well as by out-of school speakers or groups.

In the fall students heard as assembly on fire prevention, one by the Ames High delegates to Hawkeye Boys' State, and a home talent assembly presented on the night of Open House. Later assemblies included such subjects as micro-waves, sponsored by Bell Telephone Co., and a movie on the World Series.

AHS Today

Graduates earn money

The Ames High School class of 1998 earned more than $650,000 in scholarships and grants. Many of those are usable for more than one year, bringing that total to about $1 million!

Ames High is Jammed

Nearly 1,700 students have enrolled at Ames High School this year -- about 50 more than expected and nearly 100 more than last year.

On the first day of school, 1,693 ninth-graders through twelfth-graders were counted. The school was built in 1961 to handle about 1,200 students. There have been three additions since then.

Homecoming '98

English teacher LoAnn Campbell was honored this year as the 1998 homecoming parade marshal. Campbell agreed that it was an honor. "Any teacher feels honored any time a student group chooses him or her to do something special. I was really touched."

The homecoming theme this year was "Wild on the Nile". Ames High won the homecoming game against Fort Dodge with a score of 34-7.

Fitness Center Dedicated

The dedication of the Paul R. Jones Fitness Center was held November 1 at Ames High School. Over 200 students and community members attended to show their support, tour the fitness center and read bricks and granites in the Walk of Fame.

Most of the $250,000 for the project was raised by fund raising and school district funds paid for the rest. Paul R. Jones '34 donated $60,000, the largest of the donations. The Ames High School Alumni Association donated $15,000 to purchase weight equipment for the center. Also, Ames High students helped raise $7,000 for rubber flooring in the center.

Best-ever ACT scores

Ames High School students received the school's highest cumulative score ever in the 1997-98 ACT test. The school increased its composite test score by one-tenth of a point, up from 24.6 to 24.7, this year. Seventy-three percent of the school's seniors - 263 students - took the test.

The score is 2.6 points higher than the statewide average of 22.1 points and 3.7 points higher than the national average of 21 points. The test is based on a scale of one to 36.

We Get Letters . . .

Dear Ames High folk,

I guess I'm on the lost list. I'm alive and well and living in Bacliff, TX. I'm pushing "71" in August. My family consists of 6 boys and two girls. Seventeen grandkids and 7 great grand kids.

I've never accomplished much, only being a "mother" and "grammy". School can give you an education but your kids can also give you an education. Love being a mother of eight. I've met a lot of people but none like old Ames High kids. I'm proud to be one of you guys.

Yours,
Mary (Cox) King,
'46

Dear Mr. Ripp,

I would like to thank you and the Ames High School Alumni Association for the AHSAA Scholarship in the amount of $1000.

I will be attending Grinnell College in the fall of 1998 with a probable major of Environmental Studies. This scholarship will greatly aid my pursuit for further knowledge.

The Ames High community (teachers, administrators, alumni, parents, students...) has greatly enhanced my life. As I entered into high school, I was shocked by the diversity of students and dedication of the teaching staff. As I exited the school on graduation night, I left knowing that it was the entire Ames High community, not just the teachers and students, that had made my high school years a wonderful experience.

Thanks again for the scholarship, you are helping my dreams come true.

Sincerely,

Joseph Mowers, '98

Dear Friends,

I took notice in the June 1998 Alumni Newsletter that Mrs. Josephine (MacRae) Boswell had passed away on May 11, 1997.

Josephine was the daughter of Professor MacRae head of the music department of ISC. As far as I know, she also was the first female member elected into the varsity club earning her "A" in golf along with Bill Bliss and Beresford.

Josephine later became quite a noted golfer playing and winning in several championships in Arizona.

The young ladies of Ames High School should kiss the ground for her leadership in furthering the athletic abilities and honors for the ladies in athletics. "A real Lady."

Sincerely,

Richard Mason, '37

Ames High Alumni Scholarship Committee:

I will be a senior at Iowa State University this fall majoring in elementary Education. I wanted to thank you one more time for the $1000 scholarship you awarded me as a freshman. Your money helped make it possible for me to share my time and talents in a variety of wonderful activities here at Iowa State. Thank you! I've worked very hard to make you proud of your investment in me.

I've enclosed a resume of my three years here at Iowa State. It's been a great three years. Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Suzanne Craig, '95

Classy Jogger Aids Motorist

Recently I was having trouble getting my car started at the corner of Hayward and Hunt in Ames at the home of Irene Swanson. It was a lucky place to be because so many Iowa State students dash by all the time.

First a girl stopped to help and started it easily. When we returned an hour later, it stopped again. Three young men stopped this time but after an hour of waiting, thinking it was flooded, we became desperate - one last try. We hailed a well dressed jogger who came right over and knew at once we were out of gas (we were by then!).

The jogger not only jogged over to the nearby Kum and Go and got a can of gas, but he brought it back, leaving his license as security. In order to thank him, we called the manager of the Kum and Go and he told us the jogger's name was William Munson of Houston, Texas. Back came the jogger and we offered him a case of pop as thanks. He was so pleasant!

In our conversation, it turned out he was a 1974 graduate of Ames High School! We were flabbergasted to find out he was Assistant Vice President of Student Development and Dean of Students at the University of Houston! He was in Ames visiting his parents, Gordon and Verna Munson over homecoming weekend. Homecoming at Iowa State is always a busy and sometimes stressful time for the Deans on campus. It was nice to have an extra one! An extra special one!
